Eval. Notes: On November 16, 2018, Amy Scaffidi (NJDEP-Bureau of Hazardous Waste Compliance & Enforcement) and I (Rebecca Meissner) attempted to conduct a standard compliance inspection at Former Richard Stockton College of NJ, which was located at 801 Boardwalk in Atlantic City, NJ. Stockton was issued EPA Identification #: NJD986640977 at this location. In December 2014, Richard Stockton College (now Stockton University) purchased the Showboat from Caesars Entertainment with the intention of using the facility to house students and host undergraduate and graduate classes and professional training programs. Due to legal complications involving deed restrictions, Stockton sold the facility to Bart Blatstein (CEO, Tower Investments) in January 2016. The current property owner is listed as Showboat Renaissance LLC. Stockton subsequently de-activated the facility's EPA ID Number in April 2017. No violations were issued as a result of this inspection. The facility is currently operating as a hotel under the name Showboat Atlantic City (Hazardous Waste Program Interest #: NJN986659902). An inspection was conducted at Showboat Atlantic City on 11/16/18; refer to SCI180001-NJN986659902 for further details.
